LOCALS.

BUG FINISH at Craig & Hocker's.
HUSTONVILLE FAIR, July 31—three days.

Go to Craig & Hocker's for perfect fitting spectacles.

HANDSOME glass tumblers at only 25c per dozen. Geo. H. Farris & Co.

PLENTY hand-made harness of the latest pattern on hand. J. C. McClary.

ICE Cream Freezers and Water Coolers at special low prices. John Bright, Jr., & Co.

No such prices ever made before in Stanford as Severance & Sons are making on wash goods.

DON'T fail to get some of those cotton covers on cleaning up counters at 5c per yard. Severance & Sons.

A COMPETITIVE examination for graduates for appointment to State College will be held here July 25.

BURNS.—An 18 months old child of Robert Burns, of Livingston, died yesterday and will be buried here today.

SALE.—Mrs. Nannie S. Sauley announces that she will sell a lot of furniture, etc., at the college Saturday week, 27th.

HIATT & YOUNG, the threshermen, received a new separator Wednesday, which is as big as all outdoors and of the most modern make.

MISS ADAMS, of Hustonville, will sell their millinery stock on reasonable terms. Good stand. Contemplate moving causes them to sell. Write or call.

BELLE OF LINCOLN lodge of Odd Fellows will give its annual picnic at Turnersville Aug. 5. There will be marches, drills, base ball and speaking galore.

TOM GILL, charged with threatening to exterminate his brother-in-law, Hazlett, if he didn't treat his sister better, was discharged by Judge Bailey, the proof not being strong enough to convict him.

HUSTONVILLE.—Come in and see the great reduction of prices on tailor made suits I am offering for July and August. Don't buy a ready made suit when you can have one made to order just as cheap. A. J. Adams.

PICNIC.—The Green River Christian church and Sunday School at Yosemite will give a picnic on Saturday, July 20, when a big time is expected. There will be speeches, recitations, choruses, &c., and last but not least, an old-fashioned picnic dinner. Go and help the good cause.

HURT.—Miss Pearl Farmer, of McLean, Ill., writes that her father, Mr. Joseph Farmer, formerly of this county, was badly hurt in a runaway the other day. The bones of his left ankle were crushed and he was painfully hurt otherwise. His sufferings are intense, she says.

OUR old friend and former correspondent, Judge M. D. Hughes, of Lancaster, has announced for police judge of his town. If the people of Garrard's capital want a judge who knows how to dispense justice and will do it without fear or favor they will make Mr. Hughes judge by acclamation.

THE postmaster at Hartwell, Casey county, writes that the INTERIOR JOURNAL has not arrived there for two weeks and that "subscribers are raising a howl," which they are thoroughly justifiable in doing. The papers are mailed regularly every Tuesday and Friday morning, are wrapped carefully and addressed plainly and why they do not reach their destination only the good Lord and the mean mail agents know. We have kicked about the careless handling of our paper until our patience is exhausted and unless something is done for the better we will proceed to give the postmasters and postal clerks, who handle the I. J., the kicking they seem to deserve.

FOLLOWING is the program of the South Eastern Kentucky Medical Society which meets here today: Dr. Caldwell, London, "The Modern Treatment of Typhoid Fever." Dr. J. D. Adkins, Williamsburg, "Head Presentations, Diagnosis and Treatment." Dr. G. W. Casenbury, Paint Lick, "Gastroenteritis. Diagnosis and Treatment." Dr. Snyder, Jellico, "The Pathology, Diagnosis, and Treatment of Dysentery." Dr. Steele Bailey, Stanford, "A Paper." Dr. J. H. Lutz, McWhorter, "Hypnotism." Also paper on "Fracture and Treatment of Ribs." Dr. J. H. Parker, Corbin, "Pathology, Diagnosis, Treatment of Ploental Previa." Dr. John C. Cooper, Livingston, Presidential Address. The annual election of officers will be held. The present officers are: Dr. John C. Cooper, president, Dr. A. G. Lovell, vice president, Dr. Wm. J. Edmiston, secretary.

25c MADRAS at 19c. Severance & Sons.

WHITE, grey and black silk gloves. Severance & Sons.

CHICKEN feed and shipstuff cheap for cash. J. H. Baughman & Co.

WEDNESDAY's Danville Advocate hasn't arrived, but then there's plenty of time yet.

LOOK at Severance & Sons' ad. They mean to close out their summer goods if prices will do it.

REMEMBER that our terms are cash. Low cash prices on feed of all kinds. J. H. Baughman & Co.

THE L. & N. will sell round-trip tickets to Richmond, July 17, 18 and 19, good returning until the 20th, at 1 1/2 fares, on account of the A. O. U. W. Street Fair.

A CHANGE.—Superintendent Garland Singleton tells us that Harvey's New Grammar will be used instead of Metcalf's Grammar in the public schools of Lincoln county for the next five years.

BETTER write or speak for space in the Hustonville Fair Daily. It is going fast and you might be too late. Messrs. Keller and Alverson, of this office, who will have charge of it, intend to make it a "hummer."

SOME of the republican bosses say a full ticket will be put out while others say only a few of the democratic nominees will have opposition. The truth of the business is the rads are disheartened at the good feeling existing in the democratic ranks and they don't know what to do.

FINED.—Muriel Huber, a colored woman, was fined $8 for using offensive language toward Mrs. W. H. Brady. Joe Hayden, also colored, for resisting an officer, swearing on the street, &c., was let off with the light fine of $10, which included costs. Both were tried before Judge Carson.

THE county court of Boyle has refused to allow the owners of the Danville & Lancaster turnpike to collect toll in Boyle county, as the company has not complied with the terms of its contract in keeping the roads repaired. This is the pike on which dynamite has recently been used. The road will be appraised and purchased by the county.

WE hope to have the catalogues for the Hustonville fair ready for distribution by tomorrow afternoon. If we fail to do so it will be the fault of the advertisers who are distressingly slow about sending their copy in. The catalogue will contain close to 50 pages and nearly every business firm in Lincoln and many in other counties are represented in it.

SAM BLAKEMORE KILLED.—What seems to have been a clear case of premeditated murder was committed at Crab Orchard Tuesday morning when Alfred Bright, of Turnersville, way, laid and shot Sam Blakemore, also colored, from the effects of which he died in the afternoon. The Negroes were brothers-in-law and they quarreled over a division of some property. This occurred some months ago and the two had been at odds since. Bright used a shot gun loaded with No. 2 shot and fired in Blakemore's face, disfigured him almost beyond recognition. He was already blind in one eye and a shot pierced the good one, blinding him, but notwithstanding this, he drew his pistol, which he carried in a basket, and fired three shots in the direction of Bright. That the killing was premeditated is shown by the fact that he told several people who saw him with a shot gun that they would hear from him in less than 24 hours. He told Bony Carter that he intended to kill a Negro and said to Marshal Jones here that he was going to use his gun on a fellow. Dan Caldwell, a well-known darkey, plead with Bright not to go to Crab Orchard with his gun but he paid no attention to him. Blakemore was a barber and a hard-working, clever Negro, polite and well-behaved. He was popular with white and colored and had little or no trouble with any one. Bright doesn't bear a bad reputation and on the contrary belongs to a good family of darkies. After the shooting Bright took to the woods and when hotly pursued by Deputy Sheriff Joe A. Shannon and Mr. W. T. Saunders Tuesday afternoon surrendered to Marshal Egbert Wallin, of Brodhead, who turned him over to Messrs. Shannon and Saunders, who in turn delivered him to Jailer DeBord. The examining trial, which will likely be waived, is set for this morning.

Bright claims that Blakemore had threatened to kill him if he ever spoke to him and that they met by accident Tuesday morning. He further says that Blakemore was trying to get his pistol out of a basket he carried and that he did not fire until he thought his life in danger. "We shot about the same time, I think, and he fired two shots at me afterward," Bright remarked as he told his story. When asked about the threats he had made here he said that he did not remember making any and that he was very drunk here Monday night when he took the train for Crab Orchard. He took two drinks before he met Blakemore.
